Cat: New Technologies, Science & Technology

Tesla's Children follows five outside-the-box thinkers/mavericks, who are not only changing the existing scientific paradigm, but are overthrowing it in several unique ways. The inventors are connected by an inspiration to iconic pioneer Nikola Tesla, a Serbian inventor who immigrated to America to work with Thomas Edison. Although Tesla was a genius responsible for such inventions as fluorescent lighting, remote control, robots, helicopter airplanes, particlebeam weapons, hydroelectric power system, wireless communication and the induction motor...
