The placebo effect has long enjoyed a notorious reputation. To attribute a cure to the placebo effect, was to consider that the illness was the product of the mental state of a hypochondriac. If he invented his illness, he could invent his cure. Now, in contradiction to these theories, scientific studies carried out over recent decades show that the placebo effect can result in physiological changes.

[DVDA251-01] 1 x 74 minutes | 2013
Cat: Religion, Conflicts and Resolutions, Social Issues, Africa

The meeting of the Blue and White Nile in Sudan's capital, Khartoum, is referred to as 'the longest kiss in history'. As the Arab Spring was in full bloom, Sudan, straddling between the Middle East and Africa, was about to split in two. The film follows six young Sudanese searching for a place to call 'home' as their journeys take us up and down the Nile, between north and south Sudan, ahead of the south's secession.

PSYCHOLOGY AND PSYCHIATRY

An in-depth look at the community of San Patrignano, the largest drug rehabilitation and detox centre in the world. This centre, located near Bologna in Italy, boasts a 2000 person capacity and has been offering its 4-year therapeutic programme free of cost since its inception in 1978. The centre's extraordinary success rate is a result of its unwillingness to consider addiction as an illness, and its non-classical therapeutic approach that aims to eliminate dependence without drug substitution. This film follows the lives of five community residents in particular, each from different countries, as they recount their journey of struggle and hope.

Cat: Industry and Commerce, Lifestyles, Sustainable Development

This documentary tackles the big question of economic growth in a finite world from the point of view of a social and deeply ecological movement known as Degrowth... This documentary juxtaposes two worlds. The world as it is now, a world of desire, of 'having' and 'always more'. But another world is on its way, a world of 'being', aware of the limits of the biosphere, where the so-called 'conscientious objectors to growth' work together to build a socio-economic alternative...
